The class that collected the most money was Grade 2S. (R13100,00). Congratulations and Well done to all our winners. We are eternally grateful to all our learners, parents, teachers and community for supporting our fund-raising drive.

3. Parents consultation

Parents consultation was held on the 16th of July between 15:00 and 18:00. Thank you for attending.

4. Speech Festival

The Foundation phase speech festival will be held this term. Grade 1 to 3 learners received the topics and details last term.

Round 1 will be held from the 22/07/2024 until the 25/07/2024. All learners must participate. Teachers will listen to learners in class and 5 learners will be chosen from each class to participate in round 2. Parents will be notified by SMS if their child is selected. The final round will take place on the 5th of August.

5. Concert

The final countdown has begun for the much-awaited concert. This will take place from the 13th to 15th of August. Ticket costs R100.00 per person per night. Participating learners do not have to purchase tickets. Although the participants will participate on all three nights, parents do not have to buy tickets for all three nights. Our hall can only accommodate 300 seated people at a time. Therefore, tickets are first come, first serve. Ticket sales will continue until the 12th August. Learners are currently practicing during school. All participants were requested to pay R150,00 for décor, sound, accessories, costumes and props. Please make payment if you have not done so and thank you for payments received. Prayer facilities will be available.

6. Support Classes and extra murals

Support classes and extra-murals are to commence on the 15th of July. Co-ordinating educators will inform learners as to the days on which these will take place. Please note disruptions may occur due to compulsory meetings held by department.
